

FREE LOCAL SUMMER EVENTS

Immerse Yourself in Art & Nature

Exciting news, we have additional dates in September due to popular demand. Come along and experience the best of what Greenford has to offer. Free fun-filled activities that can be enjoyed by the whole family.

The Wind in the Willows Immersive Walks

Saturday 5th September | Select your time

Built around the iconic Wind in the Willows and the whimsical characters of Mole, Badger and Mr Toad, this experience invites you to share in their tales of friendship and adventure, through a combination of storytelling and theatrics.

The trail, which spans across Greenford Quay, is suitable for visitors of all ages and abilities, with each experience tailored to your group depending on whether you are a family unit or an adult party.

Eco Arts Trail & Workshop

Saturday 12th September | Select your time

This walk, led by an ARTi leader, takes in some of the most exciting and unique eco-art installations between Greenford Quay and Horsenden Hill Farm, discussing the inspiration, themes, materials, techniques and impact of each piece.

For art and culture lovers, this trail walk provides a bespoke experience and unique opportunity to see the area's eco-art through the eyes of an expert, culminating in a specialist art workshop where you will explore environmental art through hands-on crafting. StreetDots will be on-site providing great food and drinks for purchase.

Lands & Riverscapes Painting Workshop

Saturday 19th September | 9.30 – 12.30pm

9.30 am – 10.30 am - Introduction, walk and photo taking

11.00 am – 12.30 pm - Watercolour session workshop

Make the most of canalside living by taking part in a local workshop exploring creativity with watercolour painting.

The tutor will spend time with each of you as you find, explore, and showcase your personal artistic style through watercolour painting.
